A Royal Array of

This "Queen Quality" proposition is unique in a way. True, there may be many shoes that are comfortable, stylish, good—no one has a monopoly of the facilities that create "best." Then, although not a common practice, there are several other brands which are sold at a uniform price. And, again, $3.00 a pair is not a remarkably low price for women's shoes.

But that you may buy faultlessly made shoes, cut from the choicest leathers, in the most approved designs, and at $3.00 a pair, Oxfords at $2.50, comes only by virtue of the "Queen Quality" proposition.

You may choose from many different styles. Your shoes, if chosen from "Queen Quality," may be feather weight and dainty or more substantial, with welted soles, and made on the fashionable mannish models.

They may have high, medium, or low heels. They may be of any leather that pleases your fancy—Kibo Patent Kid, French Patent Leather, Kibo Calif, Kibo Kid, or Kibo Enamel Calif.

The tops may be uniform with the vamp, or made of fine cloth or soft mat kid leather.

Then you may have any style toe, tipped or plain; any width from AA to EE; any from 1 to 8; and, best of all, any shape that best conforms to the form of your foot and your idea of beauty.

Does any other shoe offer more?
Does any other offer nearly so much for quite so little?

OPENS OCTOBER 19,

30 Minutes District Court at Sterling City.

Judge J. W. Timmins left last Sunday for Sterling City to open court at the regular term for that county, and Monday morning he empaneled the grand jury and set it to work in about 30 minutes time, after which he took up the dockets, and finding nothing on them adjournd court until in the evening, when the grand jury having found nothing to base an indictment upon, the court was adjournd for the term. So that the time of 30 minutes em-paneling the grand jury was virtually the duration of the term of court.

The Judge and district attorney returned home Tuesday.
We are satisfied this is the shortest term of District Court ever held in Texas.
